2016 Colorado Wilderness Gathering:
Looking to a Wild Future through Education and Advocacy

When: Saturday and Sunday, November 12-13, 2016

Where: Buena Vista Community Center, 715 E. Main Street, Buena Vista, Colorado 81211. <http://www.buonavistaco.gov/2162/Community-Center>

Who: All Wilderness and public lands advocates, stewards, leaders, and volunteers welcome. Gathering is sponsored by multiple Colorado public lands conservation organizations.

What: A two-day gathering for public land conservation advocates to learn and discuss Colorado wildlands issues, brainstorm advocacy and grassroots strategies, and celebrate past successes while planning for future conservation efforts through speakers, presentations, panels, breakout sessions, and place-based hikes.

Lodging: Accommodations including motels and camping available in Buena Vista and Salida, 25 miles south of gathering. Camping near Buena Vista is available in the Arkansas Headwaters Recreation Area's Railroad Bridge and Ruby Mountain campgrounds, as well as the BLM Midland Hills Recreation Area. Lodging options will be described on the registration page.

Meals: Saturday lunch and dinner provided. Saturday and Sunday morning coffee and light breakfast items included. Please supplement your special dietary needs by bringing any extra items along with you.

Cost: $40.00 per person.
