

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY WANTED: WOMEN TO ADVOCATE FOR THE WILD

Did you say “Broads”?

Great Old Broads for Wilderness is a national grassroots organization, led by elders, that engages and inspires activism to preserve and protect wilderness and wild lands. Conceived by older women who love wilderness, Broads gives voice to the millions of older Americans who want to protect their public lands as Wilderness for this and future generations. We bring knowledge, commitment, and humor to the movement to protect our last wild places on earth.

Come learn about the Klamath-Siskiyou ecoregion and how you can help protect wild places like this!

Great Old Broads for Wilderness is offering four scholarships for women to attend the:

Redwoods Broadwalk Event

Session 1 - July 6-10 or Session 2 - July 13-17

We seek women from culturally diverse backgrounds who love the outdoors and want to advocate for wild places. We train women as leaders and advocates for wilderness designation and protection.

The events will be held in northern California near Crescent City. You'll learn about the region's ecological systems, public land policy, and how conservation groups will work together to effect change.
