

Participant Packing List
Great Old Broads for Wilderness Borderlands Broadwalk

- Silent Auction Item: Hosted at each event to help support event costs. Please bring a new or gently used item for the auction (hiking gear and outdoor items are especially popular). Don't forget your checkbook! If you don't have something to bring from home, no worries; please don't go buy something.
- Cash (small bills) for helping drivers with gas or for souvenirs along the way.
- Beverages and hors d'oeuvres of your choice for happy hour.
- A happy hour mug or cup (or you can purchase one of our Broads' wine glasses!)
- Optional extra snacks for each day
- Road map, directions, phone, and phone charger and/or inverter.
- Cooler and ice, if needed.
- Printed letter for reference
- Hiking shoes/boots/socks
- 2-liter water carrying capacity: Nalgene type bottle or a hydration pack
- Day pack for daily outings
- Personal first aid kit in your day pack
- Brimmed hat, cap, or visor
- Bandana
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen and bug dope
- Lip balm and lotion
- Swimsuit
- Headlamp or flashlight
- Rain jacket and rain pants
- Extra Towel
- Layers for mountainous desert environment: April highs can reach 71, with night time lows in the mid-30's
- Work clothes for stewardship day: leather work gloves, pants, long sleeve shirt, shoes with ankle support, safety glasses or sunglasses for eye protection
- Camp clothes and shoes – Comfortable clothes to wear after hiking or stewardship
- Personal toiletries and medications
- Towel, washcloth, soap, and shampoo
- Make sure your vehicle has a working jack and the spare tire has appropriate air

If Camping:

- 3-5-gallon jug of water. This is not mandatory, but if you like to have your own water accessible at all times, this is a great way to have it.
- Tent and ground cloth.
- Sleeping bag (at least a 15-degree bag) and pad or cot; an extra sleeping bag or blanket for warmth.
- Pillow

- Towel
- Camp chair (optional: small camp table)

Optional Items:

- Camera (and batteries)
- Trekking poles
- Binoculars and bird identification book
- Plant identification book
- Journal, pen, and a good book
- Musical instrument (if you play one)
- A favorite poem, song, musical instrument, reading to share with the group